

HUMIDITY HAS THE CALL.

Less Caloric, but More Moisture in New York Air.Outlook for Showers During All the Afternoon and Evening.The relief which cooler weather to-day has brought to suffering New Yorkers is partially offset by the increased humidity, which its way is even more disconcerting than extreme heat.The temperature in this city at 8 A. M. today was 75 degrees, and at noon it was only 77, or nearly ten degrees cooler than the same hour yesterday.In the same time the humidity had run up from 77 to 83 per cent, and was still increasing.
This indicates that there will be more rain and showery weather for the rest of the day, with generally fair, clearing weather, with a still lower temperature to-morrow.According to Local Forecast Observer from the South, the weather will turn over to the southern and central states, but much cooler in the Middle Atlantic and New England states, and over the Lake region; also in the Northwest over North Dakota and at Minneapolis.The weather is generally clear, and there is no chance of rain in the central states.The probability, on the contrary, is that the present cool spell will be of short duration, for it is growing hotter than ever in the intervening period. The heat wave started in the extreme Northwest and is moving eastward.The increasing death rate of this city, which is due to damp, sultry heat or, has begun to give the health authorities some concern. Yesterday's record was 191, as against 200 in 1891. Of the 191 deaths, there were children under five years of age, and in most cases death was the result of diarrhoeal complaints. Only one case of cholera morbus was reported yesterday.

TAKEN BACK TO BINGHAMTON.

Dr. McDonald Charged with Complicity in a Murder.Dr. Charles M. McDonald, who is wanted in Binghamton, N. Y., on a charge of manslaughter, was turned over to Sheriff Ober-mann, of Broome County, by Justice White, in the Jefferson Market Court this morning.Dr. McDonald was arrested on a bench warrant by Sergeant Jacob and Dunn, of Inspector Steers' office, Wednesday night. The arrest was made shortly before daybreak.The doctor was leaning against a lamp post at tenth street and Broadway. He has been away from Binghamton four months. He refused to say where he had been staying.It is charged by the Binghamton authorities that Dr. McDonald was an accomplice of Ernest Schenck, of Binghamton, in the谋害 in poisoning the latter's wife, Mrs. Schenck's rock and her husband, it is said, did not get along well together. It is also said that she caused him to insure her life payable to her husband.Four months ago she complained of being ill, and her husband, it is charged, got a powdered medicine for her. Dr. McDonald is said to have mixed it with some water in a saucer and take it. Then he went away to a public meeting.The woman, it is alleged, did as directed, and a few hours afterwards was found unconscious. McDonald was sent for, and after a tardy arrival, it is said, he put some water in the saucer and gave it to her. She died in a few minutes.The powder, it is alleged, contained strychnine.Dr. McDonald disappeared after the woman's death. He weighs about 250 poundsand is of average complexion, and features the same indicate Indian descent. Detective Dunn recognized him from the Sheriff's description.

THE PESTILENCE IN EUROPE.

Spanish Medical Experts Say the Paris Disease is Cholera.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

MADRID, July 14.—The report of the Spanish Medical Commission that was sent to Paris to inquire into the nature of the epidemic of so-called "cholera" has been received. The report declares that the disease is Asiatic cholera.In consequence of this report the Government has ordered that precautions be immediately taken along the Pyrenean frontier to prevent the introduction of the disease into Spain.ST. PETERSBURG, July 14.—Since the last report twenty new cases of cholera and eleven deaths from the disease have been reported at Simbirsk, on the Volga River.

BANK PRESIDENT DOBLER DEAD.

For Forty Years Identified With Banking Interests in This City.J. W. B. Dobler, President of the West Side Bank, at 485 Eighth avenue, died at 3 o'clock this morning at his home in Ridgewood, N. J.When Mr. Dobler left the bank last Saturday he was as well as usual, and intended going away on a three or four weeks' vacation. A telegram received from Mr. Dobler's son explained that Mr. Dobler had been ill for several days, and had been unable to leave.Mr. Dobler had been identified with the banking interests of this city for more than forty years, and was one of the founders of the West Side Bank, which was incorporated in 1888 he was a cashier, then becoming President.

KATIE HAD THE MEASLES.

But the Tenant Deny She Was Left Dying in the Hallway.The tenants of the house at West Sixteenth street this morning indignantly denied the report that Katie Van Duren, a four-year-old child, was left dying in the hallway because she was found to be suffering from measles.Mrs. Carroll, the housekeeper, told an express agent that she had been up two weeks ago for non-payment of rent. Since then one of the tenants has been keeping Katie by her mother, and when the little one became ill, the doctor, Dr. Keeler, a physician who summoned an ambulance to the scene, the surgeon said the child was suffering from measles. He notified the authorities, and Katie was removed to the Reception Hospital at the foot of East Sixteenth street.

Steam Yacht Linta Launched.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The steam yacht Linta, owned by Walter Autgen, of Linden, N. J., a well-known banker of New York city, was launched from the yard of the New York & Co. at midnight last night in the presence of a large throng, including many prominent persons. The Linta is 80 feet long, handsome, and up to one of the largest steam yachts ever built here. The launch was a great success.

make cloaks at home is $8 a month, and cut that grass this morning, as I told you?I little Son—No, I was sick this morning.
I thought I was going to die I was so weak, but this afternoon I forgot it.What have you been doing all the afternoon? Playing tag o' war?

Nothing Much.

[From Street & Smith's Good News.] Little Bobby—Mamma, the boys is going to have a circus. May I act?Mamma—Oh, I suppose so. What are you to do?Little Bobby—Nothin' much. They is goin' to have a pyramid of sixteen toys, an' all I has to do is to stand on top.

DECIDED AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

A Lawsuit That Beats the Celebrated Case of Jarndyce.Thirty years on trial, the principals dead, the judges dead, the witnesses dead—it is the strange history of the suit of Palen vs.
Bushnell, in which ex-Judge E. L. Fancher as defendant has just rendered his decision.The suit was begun in 1862, and has been before two referees, John P. Crosby and Ex-Judge Fancher. It was brought by William Palen, receiver of Terry Brothers, against Ezra Bushnell, executor of Edward D. Bushnell.It was for the recovery of the value of 200 shares of stock in the New York & Western Bank, which was claimed to be illegal.During its dreary dragging through the courts the most prominent men have been asked to give their opinion, including Mr. H. V.
Schmitz, Lorring, Andrews and others.The most singular feature of the case is the mortality of those concerned in it. The Terry Brothers, the Palens, the Fanchers, Mr. Ezra Bushnell, the defendant, are all dead.Edward D. Bushnell, the defendant, is dead as far as the bondsmen or Mr. Palen, the receiver, are concerned.Referee Crosby is dead, and are judges and referees, John P. Crosby and Ex-Judge Fancher, the case is still活着。The forty-eight witnesses alive, all but two
